

VARIETIES OF QUANTUM INDETERMINISM, AS PERCEIVED FROM TWO-VALUED MEASURES ON PROPOSITIONAL STRUCTURES

KARL SVOZIL

ABSTRACT. When it comes to two-valued measures, various sets of quantum observables have very different non-classical properties. Some of these are discussed. In particular, Boole-Bell type inequalities and related properties are derived in situations with intertwining propositions.

INSTITUT FÜR THEORETISCHE PHYSIK, WIEDNER HAUPTSTRASSE 8-10/136, A-1040
VIENNA, AUSTRIA
E-mail address: `svozil@tuwien.ac.at`