Erasmus Code	F MARSEIL84
Website for incoming exchange students	https://www.univ-amu.fr/en/public/study-amu-part-exchange-program
Conditions for incoming students	All nominations are accepted, but mobility acceptance will be given by each School/Faculty in accordance with their hosting capacity Upon nomination by their home university, students will be given a link for their online application Some Schools/Faculties may have limited or specific hosting conditions: > IAE Aix (aix-Marseille Graduate School of Management) will only accept very few students due to highly limited hosting capacity > The Faculty of Medicine and Paramedical Sciences has specific conditions due to training periods and mostly accepts students in their 4th or 5th year. Incoming flows will be limited and a future reform will change the Faculty's courses catalogue Students can take courses in maximum 2 departments. It is highly recommended to contact the International Relations offices with the Schools and Faculties prior to finalising your course selections : https://www.univ-amu.fr/system/files/2019-10/DRI-Contacts%20mobilité%20étudiante%20AMU_3.pdf
Language requirements	Most courses are taught in French. However some departments do offer English-taught courses: https://dri.univ-amu.fr/en/studying-at-amu/programmes-partially-totally-taught-in-english Candidates are not required to provide an official certificate to attest to their level of knowledge in French. However it is strongly recommended that they apply with a B1 level minimum in French (except for English-taught courses)
Academic Calendar	The academic year at AMU officially starts at the beginning of September and ends at the end of September of the following year (courses and exams end in May/June). Teaching schedules vary from faculty to faculty: https://www.univ-amu.fr/en/public/university-calendars. Courses usually start in September and end in May Examinations are usually held in winter (December and January) and in late spring (May and June).
Enrollment in French language courses	AMU facilitates the language learning process by offering for students French courses for foreigners to exchange students (free of charge). Further information will be sent to students directly by the International Relations Office after acceptance. AMU organizes intensive French language courses before the beginning of the academic year (usually last week of August). These French courses are mixed with cultural activities (Welcome week for International students)
